Sheep, Coin, & Son

“the past is a foreign country: they do things differently there”

L.P. Hartley

Luke 15: 8-10

⁸ “Or suppose a woman has ten silver coins and loses one. Doesn’t she light a lamp, sweep the house and search carefully until she finds it?”

⁹ And when she finds it, she calls her friends and neighbours together and says, ‘Rejoice with me; I have found my lost coin.’

¹⁰ In the same way, I tell you, there is rejoicing in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents.”

Key Features

- The protagonist is a woman – no other description
- A silver coin – a drachma – about a day's wages
- The listener is being asked to put themselves in the story

“A text without a context is just a pretext for whatever you want to make it”

Ben Witherington

So What?

If you are the lost, this is about the value that God has placed on us and the lengths He is willing to go to in order to find you

If you are the found, this is about the value that God has placed on the lost around us, and His calling to you to participate with Him to find them.

Let's catch up!

Spend some time catching up with one another in person!
