WHAT'S UP FOR KIDS?!

Welcome

The background of the image is an abstract composition of numerous sharp, diagonal, overlapping shapes. These shapes are primarily in shades of dark green, forest green, and brown, with some lighter, golden-brown highlights. The overall effect is a dense, textured pattern that resembles a close-up of a plant or a stylized, modern graphic design.

OFFERING

The image features a dark navy blue background. In the corners, there are large, semi-transparent circles in vibrant colors: blue in the top-left, red in the top-right, orange in the bottom-left, and yellow in the bottom-right. Wavy, multi-colored lines in shades of pink, orange, yellow, and teal flow across the top and bottom of the frame, creating a dynamic, celebratory feel.

Two large, overlapping abstract shapes in teal and orange are positioned on the right side of the image. The teal shape is on top and to the left, while the orange shape is on the bottom and to the right.

JOB 2:11-13

- ¹¹ When Job's three friends, Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite, heard about all the troubles that had come upon him, they set out from their homes and met together by agreement to go and sympathize with him and comfort him. ¹² When they saw him from a distance, they could hardly recognize him; they began to weep aloud, and they tore their robes and sprinkled dust on their heads. ¹³ Then they sat on the ground with him for seven days and seven nights. No one said a word to him, because they saw how great his suffering was.

WHAT DO WE DO WHEN THE STORY GETS HEAVY.

- What not to do....
 - Deny the problem.
 - Jump straight to solutions.
 - Start placing blame.
 - Make it about you.
 - Jump to the silver lining or simple verses outside of context.
- What to do...
 - Acknowledge the darkness.
 - Offer your presence.

WHERE IS GOD WHEN THE STORY GETS HEAVY?

- Acknowledge the light.
- God is here in the suffering.
- God is bigger than our circumstances.
- We have a living Hope.

REFLECTING ON THE LORD WHO KNEW SUFFERING.

- Jesus entered into suffering he experienced it himself. Jesus, the Light of the World passed through darkness and overcome the darkness.
