Welcome

The background of the image is an abstract composition of numerous sharp, diagonal stripes. These stripes are primarily in shades of green and brown, with some lighter, almost white, highlights. The stripes vary in width and orientation, creating a sense of depth and movement. The overall effect is reminiscent of a close-up of a textured surface or perhaps a stylized representation of a natural element like grass or reeds.

OFFERING

AN ACT OF WORSHIP

The image features a dark navy blue background. In the corners, there are large, semi-transparent circles in vibrant colors: blue in the top-left, red in the top-right, orange in the bottom-left, and yellow in the bottom-right. Wavy, multi-colored lines in shades of pink, orange, yellow, and teal flow across the top and bottom of the frame, creating a dynamic, celebratory feel.

to ask...

Two large, overlapping abstract shapes in teal and orange are positioned on the right side of the image. The teal shape is on top and to the left, while the orange shape is on the bottom and to the right, partially overlapping the teal one.

where does it hurt?

9 Once when they had finished eating and drinking in Shiloh, Hannah stood up. Now Eli the priest was sitting on his chair by the doorpost of the Lord's house. 10 In her deep anguish Hannah prayed to the Lord, weeping bitterly. 11 And she made a vow, saying, "Lord Almighty, if you will only look on your servant's misery and remember me, and not forget your servant but give her a son, then I will give him to the Lord for all the days of his life, and no razor will ever be used on his head."

¹² As she kept on praying to the Lord, Eli observed her mouth. ¹³ Hannah was praying in her heart, and her lips were moving but her voice was not heard. Eli thought she was drunk ¹⁴ and said to her, “How long are you going to stay drunk? Put away your wine.”

“Not so, my lord,” Hannah replied, “I am a woman who is deeply troubled. I have not been drinking wine or beer; I was pouring out my soul to the Lord. ¹⁶ Do not take your servant for a wicked woman; I have been praying here out of my great anguish and grief.”

Eli answered, “Go in peace, and may the God of Israel grant you what you have asked of him.”

¹⁸ She said, “May your servant find favour in your eyes.” Then she went her way and ate something, and her face was no longer downcast.
